

WELCOME SOCIAL

Friday, October 2, 2009

6:00pm – 8:30pm

A welcome social will be held at The Old mill in San Marino, CA at 6:00pm on October 2nd. The Old Mill was built in 1816 as a grist mill for Mission San Gabriel and is the oldest commercial building in Southern California. The building is a 2 story structure currently maintained by the Old Mill Foundation. The Diggers Garden at the Old Mill is featured as a place of charm, beauty, and interest featuring native California trees and plantings. The centerpiece of the garden is the Pomegranate Patio. This patio is the home of the California Philharmonic Chamber music concerts each summer. A private Docent guided tour will be offered during the evening. These tours offer a detailed glimpse of early California life beginning with the California mission period through the present period. Social cost of $45 includes Mexican Fiesta buffet, beverages and transportation to and from the hotel.
