Journal of Therapeutic Horticulture Author Guidelines

You are invited to submit manuscripts for consideration for publication in the Journal of Therapeutic Horticulture. Manuscripts may include research projects, case studies, program and services descriptions, therapeutic practice descriptions, therapeutic horticulture philosophies, therapeutic design project descriptions, relevant book reviews, and other related topics.

Manuscripts should be submitted to one of the following sections:

Research

Includes manuscripts of research reports and case studies that contain research components such as a research question, objective, literature review, data collection, analysis, results, and conclusion.

Practice Forum

Includes manuscripts describing horticultural therapy and related programs, case reports, teaching techniques and tools, and other related items.

Therapeutic Landscape and Garden Design

Includes manuscripts on the design, history, and/or theory of gardens and other landscapes as they relate to the field of horticultural therapy.

Issues in the Profession

Includes manuscripts on such topics as education and training, professional or organizational issues, legislative issues, or other related areas.

Horticultural Therapy and the Community

Includes manuscripts on the interaction of horticultural therapy issues and the community at large.

Upon Reflection

Includes thoughts on the more philosophical, reflective and/or spiritual aspects of therapeutic horticulture.

Book Reviews

Includes the review of books relevant to the profession of horticultural therapy.

Manuscript submissions to the JTH should be sent as an e-mail attachment to the editor-in-chief. Manuscripts must represent original material that has not been previously published or that is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. In addition, authors are required to submit an abstract of the manuscript and a brief biography. If the author does not have mastery of the English language, the manuscript must be professionally translated before being submitted.

Authors are asked to follow AHTA's published definitions when describing horticultural therapy and related programs in their manuscripts (see below). References should follow the author-date format. The authority for style is the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. For more information on style and formatting, please contact the editor-in-chief.

Manuscripts must be accompanied by a cover letter indicating that the work is intended for publication and to which section it is being submitted. Please also submit the names and contact information of 2-3 individuals qualified to review the manuscript. Graphics and photographic images are acceptable and encouraged if relevant; please refer to the APA rules for formatting tables and figures. Authors whose manuscripts are accepted for publication in the JTH will be required to submit a rights assignment form. Manuscripts accepted for publication will undergo an editing process and be forwarded to the author for final clearance before publication.

The editorial board will consider quality, practicality, and relevance to the profession of horticultural therapy.

Send cover letter, manuscript, abstract, brief biography, and contact information for qualified reviewers to:
